

Cat Conner

Jazz singer Cat Conner is "...the understated real deal". A Toronto native, Cat has sung all over the world with such jazz luminaries as Joe Pass, Pete Christlieb, Gary Foster, Bill Cunliffe and Andy Simpkins. Currently, Cat makes her home in Los Angeles, where she maintains a busy performance schedule with several big bands, as well as with her all star trio: Gene Cipriano on woodwinds, Jim Fox on guitar and Jim Hughart on bass. In June 2012, Rhombus Records released Cat's debut CD, "Cat Tales", featuring the great George Mesterhazy on piano.

"Conner is simply a natural. No gimmicks, no show biz, no schmaltz, no frosting. There's a direct sincerity in the way she tells the stories of these lyrics. Few can attain it, and you know it when you hear it. Conner is the understated real deal."
Jazz Scene, Jazz Society of Oregon